C:\Users\Registrado\AppData\Local\Temp.updated 07:44 am EST, Tue January 29, 2012 World's 1,627-mile bike route The World Human Powered Vehicle (WHPV) Challenge has gotten underway in Rotterdam, Netherlands. A paddle-powered boat has made its way along the city's Maas (Meuse) river, passing through the Netherlands, Belgium, the city of Maastricht and into Germany's IJsselmeer lake system. A current of about 4 mph is pushing the boat along, which has an internal combustion engine for added speed. The main goal of the initiative is to unseat the traditional combustion engine-based World Solar Challenge. The latter has had to use fossil fuels since the inception of its previous solar-powered vehicle attempt. Tesla Motors' original Roadster was rejected from its competition in 2010 for not meeting specifications, but the current attempt sees more than three times the level of effort on the part of the team. This year's event will even see a S&S Ehrenberg tractor pull a 15-meter trailer. The World Solar Challenge is expected to carry on until the middle of next year. Though the boats will be moving along faster than when most people are driving on the roads, a crowd will be gathered and ready to admire the 1677 total miles of the route. As you said they have young pitching and as I said before they can match the fans energy. Syracuse: The Jays and the Syracuse Cottonmouths never have met, but have played each other several times in Europe over the years. Jays games have been broadcast on local radio stations in Syracuse and at times the game has been played in Cattaraugus County. The game has a rich history. In the 1906 Cattaraugus County Championship, Brock Hanstock of Cattaraugus County pitched a no-hitter against Orange County and the game drew a crowd of 10,000 to the ballpark that once housed the National Pro Football League's Syracuse Stars. The 1989 game was a memorable one with the Jays winning 4-2. The Jays finished with a record of 93-69 and scored 844 runs. The Jays 4-2 victory was one of the many special moments the team has enjoyed over its 19 years of existence.  I'd like to know the best players on the series roster, 1st to 6th?
