The author investigates the adaptive changes of the av-acute nucleus and the magnocellular cell group, which are considered as the precursors of the neocortex, in man. He discusses the importance of the visual analyzer for the organization of the sensory and the motor activity, and the impossibility of the decussation in the magnocellular part of the visual analyzer, this being one of the basic elements of the organization of the stream of vision. The author also discusses the role of the type I and type II retinal fibers in the development of the ac-apex nucleus, and of the course of pathological changes, connected with the development of the stream of vision.10/29/2017 Hymn #900: I Won't Cry #900 I Won't Cry Praise God from whom all blessings flow And praise Him in whose hand we lie. He causes His sun to shine on the just And lifts the needy from the sky. To Thee our hearts are open; Thou, We praise Thy name, O Lord, for ever. O Lord, of might divine, Lord of the humbled, Lord of slaves; Protect us through Thine only Son, For He is Lord of all. Chorus: For if we are faithless in the night, Who shall defend us then from heaven? God keeps watch and watches o'er us; May we then be found faithful to Thy love. Through Thee, O Lord, let our eyes be ever Open to Thy face. The Lord is the king of gladness. A prince of peace, a crown he wears. The Lord is clothed in majesty And lies beneath the heaven's holy temple, Blessed are all who honor Him And praise His name. All the ends of the world are in His hands; He guides the hearts of all His own. He will support His saints forever, And keep them from all danger And lead the little flock That sojourns in the wilderness, To everlasting home. Al
