After I login, I always get redirected to the 'index page'. The controller below (appLogin.java) should only return a view when login was successful. Can anyone give me some hints? Is there a way I can debug what is going on? @RequestMapping(value = "/login", method = RequestMethod.POST) public ModelAndView login(final HttpServletRequest request, final HttpServletResponse response) throws ServletException, IOException { final String error = login(username, password); if(error == null) { return new ModelAndView("login"); } else { return new ModelAndView("index"); } } A: I do not know the reason behind the problem, but I have found a solution. I
