A: What you are seeing is that due to the arrival of the tags the HTML has gone out of line. There must be a tag somewhere before the , that is causing that. Your are probably best just to use some kind of white space or regex to remove the tags that cause that. Alternately, you could just use the contents of that tag, if it contains only normal text.

Friday, 11 April 2014 SUCCESS Is Impossible Until You Suffer Defeat Until you suffer defeat, you will never experience true victory. You can't have a positive effect on anyone unless you're willing to take criticism and risk possible rejection. If you fail, you have to fail forward: accept the criticism, learn from it, decide to be better, and move on. Success is impossible until you fail; you can't put any pressure on yourself until you make mistakes; you can't really learn anything unless you are at a disadvantage and so on. There are other important reasons why you shouldn't rush in to associate with potential cliques, groups and networks. You don't want to find yourself having to defend yourself to guys and girls who appear more than a little bit more perfect than you. The Best Things in Life Are Worth Waiting for The best things in life are not for the faint-hearted, whether it's a relationship, job, or anything else. It's easy to tell yourself that you're going to achieve success, when you already know, deep down, that this will never happen. It's also difficult to understand that the best things in life aren't really so great when you think about it. There's a lot of complaining and complaining about the price of things like food, houses, or relationships. However, you aren't going to achieve success if you don't have the discipline to wait patiently for the best opportunities in your life to come knocking. It's easy to go to the opposite extreme and say that it's a waste of time and the price of success is too high. But this just isn't true either. You can always improve and the price of success is worth it. For example, if you want to start a business, you'll need a great team, you'll need to invest time and money in marketing, and you'll need some really determined, passionate people to sell your product or service.
