DCE Tools Auto Enhance is a great free plugin available on the site... Then I went one step further and added a DynaMix HDR filter to it. DynaMix HDR... Next, I uploaded my photos and added some filters to change their look a bit. DynaMix HDR Then I removed all the extra images and added more filters because I liked the way my photos looked. I made a few fixes with filters, but I didn't go overboard. After adding some styles, I decided to choose the best one. I selected Color, Contrast, Exposure, Saturation, Sharpness, Noise, and Temperature for each filter.
