hawaii; richard blumenthal, d-conn.; mazie k. hirono, d-hawaii; maggie hassan, d-n.h.; and catherine cortez masto, d-nev. "we write to request that you provide the department of justice with all records that you may possess regarding a series of meetings in june between president donald trump and his personal attorney, michael cohen, and then-attorney general jeff sessions and then-deputy attorney general rod rosenstein," the senators wrote. nbc news first reported that sessions had met with cohen on june 12 at the white house. it was also reported that cohen, who has been representing trump in a series of lawsuits against former trump attorney michael cohen, had offered to provide documents to congress related to trump's past business dealings. cohen is not a part of the trump legal team in the ongoing russia investigation, and is instead defending trump in a separate defamation case. the senators asked the justice department to provide the records by monday. "because the president made statements about his former attorney, michael cohen, and because a former employee of the department of justice has offered to provide documents regarding mr. cohen, we request these documents be promptly provided to the committee to ensure that they are protected from disclosure," the senators wrote. the letter is the latest development in an investigation involving trump's former attorney and fixer. nbc news and nbc news contributor michael cohen, who once represented trump, have both reported that cohen has offered to turn over documents to congress about trump's past business dealings, including his relationship with russian businessmen and the 2016 presidential campaign. cohen, who has not been charged with a crime, has reportedly said he will only provide the documents to the house and senate intelligence committees and the house oversight committee.
