To calculate the new building we use software Namirial Termo 2.2. This project allows the user to choose from the different requirements: the energy efficiency of the new building the upgrade energy efficiency of the new building the energy efficiency of the old building the upgrade energy efficiency of the old building Namirial Termo OTP application can support users to do the conversion of parameters for the correct calculation, as an import from a spreadsheet program, as an export to a spreadsheet program, as a conversion of your own parameters and as a batch process. The work of this software is based on the calculation files Namirial Termo 2.2 - produced by Microsoft that is a calculation tool that allows the user to calculate various energy related parameters of a building in a wide range of ways and methods, from simple to very complex and difficult to understand. The possibilities of calculation are a great tool to make BIM logical or even scientifically. For example, parameters such as heat gains or losses through a building, which increase the demand on the building, can be calculated through this software to optimize the building in order to consume less energy, bringing the building to its target energy efficiency. Namirial OTP is the most popular App for viewing videos and playing online games. Namirial OTP Windows can be directly installed on PC, Mac and Linux. Namirial OTP Install for Windows 10, 8.1, 8, 7 here today. Namirial OTP for Windows emulates a desktop environment similar to the one we see on Android and iOS platforms.
